1. In Oct	cober 1952, the chief of the Swatow nav	8] Office Centual and Ca

China Naval District, was YUAN Tung-sheng (5913/2639/3932). YUAN was responsible for procurement of supplies, liaison, training, and operations. The Swatow naval office had under its command a Junior Naval School which formerly was known as the Swatow Merchant Marine School. The school taught marine engineering and natigation. The following vessels were also under the command of the Swatow office:1

> CHIEH FANG (6043/2397) number 45 CHIEH FANG number 46 HUI HSING (1979/2502) CHIN HSING (6855/2502) CH'EN HSING (2525/2502)

- In late October, YUAN Tung-sheng received orders to form a junk fleet. Over 100 civilian-owned junks were requisitioned by the Swatow naval office and T'O Hsin-chiang (7094/2450/3984) was appointed commander. In November the organization was completed and groups of wooden sailing vessels frequently patrolled in the coastal waters.
- In late October, the Ch'aoan (N 23-42, E 116-37)-Swatow Command of the Kwangtung River Defense Command, commanded by WANG Tsp-ch'ien (3769/0155/6197)2 controlled the following radar stations:
 - Yushih (5280/4258) radar station at Swatow.
 - Hsiaotao (6007/3421/1497) radar station at Jaop'ing (N 23-58, E 116-48). b.
 - Shench'uan (N 22-59, E 116-18) radar station at Huilai (N 23-03, E 116-18).
- In early November 1952, CH'EN K'eng (7115/6972) was commander of the 4 Company
